

Cleantech 2014 Ventures by the Numbers

MaRS Cleantech works closely with entrepreneurs and investors to create solutions for smart cities and address key challenges in energy, water, agri-tech, advanced materials and manufacturing. The industry looks to MaRS Cleantech to assist with company growth and the removal of complex technology adoption barriers. The team supports high-impact businesses by connecting innovators, potential partners, customers, investors, talent and capital.

10

Collaborative initiatives and programs created with energy industry stakeholders to remove barriers to technology adoption

14

Number of international buyer delegations brought in to meet ventures

79

Number of strategic events held to introduce ventures to customers and capital partners

>3 Million

Number of Ontario customers with access to their energy data through the Green Button program

71

Number of patents issued to ventures

>50

Number of countries that ventures export to

10

Number of high-impact venture investments made by ArcTern Ventures

Capital Raised
(dilutive and non-dilutive)

Revenue Generated

Total Jobs Created & Retained

Total number of jobs created by MaRS Cleantech ventures

MaRS Cleantech comprises three main entities

Cleantech
Venture Services

ADVANCED ENERGY CENTRE
MaRS Cleantech | Ontario, Canada

Visit us at marsdd.com

MaRS is a member of

All venture numbers as reported in the 2014 Venture Client Annual Survey, which represents a subset of MaRS' 1,000 ventures. For details, see marsdd.com/survey-methodology. Other information provided by MaRS Discovery District.